Alumni from top universities in France meet the most inspiring leaders in the economic, entrepreneurial, artistic, and sportive fields

MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, October 27, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Jonathan Herman to appear among four leading founders interviewed live on-stage at the launch of the "Inspiring Leaders Series" - where alumni from the top universities in France meet the most inspiring leaders in the economic, entrepreneurial, artistic, and sportive fields. Four times a year, this series provides an exceptional opportunity with high-level speakers in a relaxed atmosphere, followed by a cocktail networking opportunity and a dinner for more time with the speakers.

Edward Jones, Vice President of Programs at ABFE, recently shared... "Hearing Jonathan artfully discuss the present (and future) of technologies is an education that we could all use - and need. His overview of what's ahead in tech is a masterclass in providing a worldview that is foreign to many of us. We all benefit when we learn what others are doing and what is possible."
