

Netgate Wins PeerSpot User Choice for Firewalls

AUSTIN, TX, UNITED STATES, October 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The ranking methodology used to select Peer Award winners is based on in-depth, balanced reviews that have been verified to be from real users. PeerSpot takes into account the number of reviews, views, and comparisons for each product as well overall rating and words per review. The winning products represent the best in their solution category based on the average ranking over the past 12 months.

We are excited that pfSense software is being awarded as one of the top Firewall solutions, and it is especially gratifying when the recognition is based on the reviews of our community"

"We are excited that pfSense software is being awarded as one of the top Firewall solutions, and it is especially gratifying when the recognition is based on the reviews of our community," said Jamie Thompson, CEO.

In celebration, Netgate is offering 6 months of TAC PRO included with any single purchase of a Netgate 4100 BASE or Netgate 4100 MAX with pfSense software. This offer (a $199 value) is valid from now until December 31, 2022.

One of Netgate's most popular appliances, the Netgate 4100 is one of the most versatile security gateways in its class. It combines the power of a Dual-Core Intel® Atom® C3338R Core CPU with integrated QuickAssist & AES-NI, and 4 GB of memory for a snappy user experience, delivering over 8.15 Gbps of L3 routing across six independent - (2) 1 GbE and (4) 2.5 GbE - flexible WAN/LAN ports.

A 6-month subscription to TAC PRO provides 24x7 access through e-mail to the Netgate Technical Assistance Center, a worldwide team of support engineers unparalleled at diagnosing and resolving issues - and fast.
