

See Your Shadow Songwriting (SYS) Gets Crazy on New Single Release

See Your Shadow Songwriting releases "Crazy Things Like That." It's the follow-up to their Top 10 National Radio Hits Top 10 single, "Take it to Your Grave."

PHOENIX, AZ, USA, October 27, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With a mission to create truly iconic music that has been crafted by a diverse group of musical geniuses, See Your Shadow Songwriting (SYS) has announced the release of their latest single, "Crazy Things Like That." Releasing on Friday, October 28th, 2022, the single is already picking up steam at radio, where it was among the Top 5 country singles added this week, according to the National Radio Hits chart. The new single follows up their Top 10 NRH Country chart hit, "Take it to Your Grave" (#7.)

Artistic Director for SYS, Michael Coleman explains the song: "Crazy Things Like That" was originally written for a finalist for the television program, 'The Voice.' When that finalist was a no-show for the meeting that was scheduled in Nashville, the song was placed on the shelf and See Your Shadow held onto it. It wasn't until SYS relaunched and formulated its new sound that the piece was finally given life."

Michael continues, "I sat out to write something very visual and very fun. The beauty of this piece is that you can close your eyes and listen to it, and it is like you are watching a video, you really get the visuals."
