“

It's time to debunk the myth that sharing our emotions ... is a sign of weakness. It's time for our corporate world to stop encouraging people to stuff down their feelings while at work.”

Carolyn Stern, President & CEO, EI Experience

“It's time to debunk the myth that sharing our emotions and being honest about how we are feeling is a sign of weakness. It's time for our corporate world to stop encouraging people to stuff down their feelings while at work. It's time to make friends with our feelings”..”Because if we stop being so scared of our emotions and look for the wisdom they provide us, we can change how we connect, communicate, and lead” explains Carolyn.

During her keynote presentation, sponsored by Accenture, Carolyn will teach leaders how to manage their emotions and lead with a strong mind and a kind heart while using a set of clear, simple, and tested skills and strategies. This kind of connection and communication creates an environment of trust and belonging that will spur engagement, spike curiosity, and engender fraternity in the workplace.
