New Christmas Ornaments to be Showcased at the Christmas Gift and Hobby Show in Indianapolis from November 9th - 13th, designed and produced by Burke Metal Work

SAN DIEGO, CA, UNITED STATES,
November 1, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/
-- The Christmas Gift and Hobby Show

is coming up fast, and Burke Metal Work is gearing up to participate! This event is a can't-miss for ornament lovers and Christmas enthusiasts alike. With hundreds of vendors, there's something for everyone. The event takes place at the Indiana State Fairgrounds from November 9th through the 13th.

We just came from another festival in Rockville and were thrilled at the feedback we received from customers. We are excited to bring our unique ornaments to this venue for the very first time!”

Angie Burke

Burke Metal Work is a husband and wife-owned small business from Attica, Indiana producing original metal designs for Christmas Ornaments, Home Decor, and Gifts. With over 150 original designs, they are sure to have a Christmas Ornament for everyone in the family. The best part about their ornaments is they can be personalized through engraving, making the ornaments a keepsake for years to come.

The Christmas Gift + Hobby Show is a festive marketplace where consumers can shop for holiday gifts, see works from local artisans, and experience holiday displays that will inspire. Attendees will be delighted by quality products and services allowing busy consumers to do all their Christmas shopping in one space. In addition, the marketplace features workshops, holiday entertainment, and tasty treats for all.

Christmas ornament lovers who are unable to attend the event from November 8th through the 13th are encouraged to view Burke Metal Work's amazing collection of gifts by visiting their website, www.BurkeMetalWork.com or exploring their Etsy site.
