

GF immigration Law Helping Immigrants Who Have Been Smuggled Across the Border

MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES , October 28, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- GF Immigration Law, a firm headlined by Abogada Julia, continues to work with immigrants who have been smuggled across the border.
Immigrants coming to the United States against their own will have rights that can help them reach legal status.
While difficult to navigate without assistance, GF Immigration Law simplifies everything for clients and assists along the way.

Specifically, GF Immigration Law focuses on anyone smuggled across the border for unlawful use. Whether it's low-paying work, domestic abuse, or anything else, it can feel like a truly helpless situation at times.

Terrible situations become even worse for immigrants without papers across the border. They feel forced to constantly look over their backs and fear deportation. The United States continues to crack down on illegal immigration. Fortunately, solutions like what Giulia Fantacci provides help find visa opportunities for many.

Immigrants must have some general knowledge of their rights to find success as far as staying in the United States. This can be a challenge, especially for those speaking minimal English. A law firm stepping in to help with the legal steps can make life much easier. Abogada Julia knows how the process works and how it's commonly stacked against immigrants on purpose.

One of the most common solutions for clients smuggled into the United States is applying for a T-Visa. While not all domestic violence cases qualify for T-Visas, it can protect the client and their immediate family from deportation while their case is pending.

Another benefit of the T-Visa is that clients can then start looking into the process of applying for residency and obtaining a Green Card. While this process can take anywhere from 1 to 3 years, it's an opportunity that is within reach that can help change an entire family's outlook.

Abogada Julia, who also goes by Giulia Fantacci, has built a website filled with information for those looking to research opportunities out there. Whether it's applying for a T-Visa, reaching out to previous immigrants facing similar situations, or getting in direct contact with the law firm. Everything's available at abogadajulia.com.

Along with the website, social media has allowed Abogada Julia to grow the firm's name little by little. Through different social media platforms, it's easier to connect with immigrants and their relatives about all the possibilities out there. In some cases, immigrants don't know what's available to them as they go through a situation independently. Spreading the word to just one new person can make an impact.
