The Tunnel to Towers Mobile 9/11 Exhibit

“

This is a special treat for Central Texans, and we encourage the public to join with others to cheer on the exhibit arrival beginning shortly after 9am from any point along the route.”

*Field of Honor® Chairwoman
Jeanne Cox*

On Saturday November 5 the Mobile Exhibit will arrive in Georgetown TX and, starting near The Summit, be escorted by the City of Georgetown Police and Fire Departments, Williamson County Sherriff's Department, and members of the Patriot Riders. The vehicles will travel to University Avenue, heading east to Austin Avenue, through the Georgetown Square and up to San Gabriel Park. Field of Honor® Chairwoman Jeanne Cox says "this is a special treat for Central Texans, and we encourage the public to join with others to cheer on the exhibit arrival beginning shortly after 9am from any point along the route."

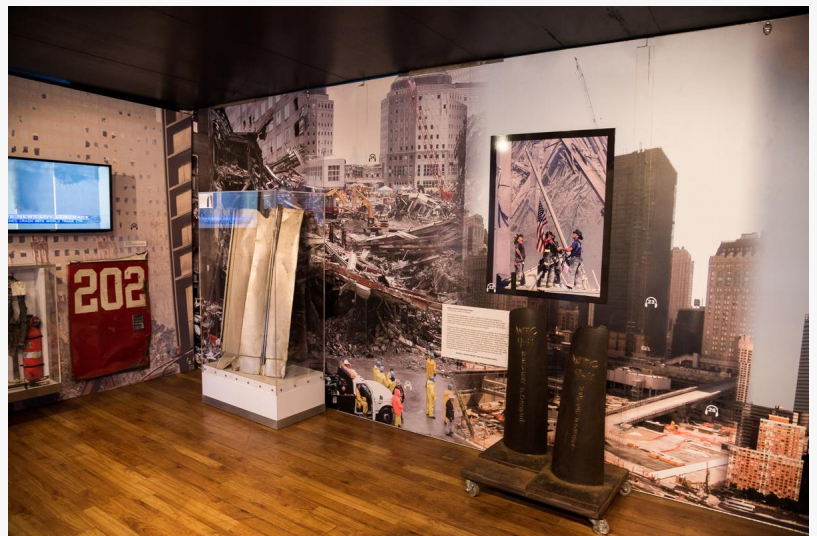

A welcome ceremony, music by the acclaimed Almost Austin Band and other festivities will take place in San Gabriel Park upon arrival, after which the exhibit will be assembled.

This exhibit is made possible through generous grants from the W.D. Kelley Foundation, Optimum and the Greater Round Rock Community Foundation. Tours of this amazing 1,100 square foot, three-room exhibit will be provided by actual FDNY volunteers that personally experienced 9/11.
