Mandi Macias is a multi-talented singer and songwriter born and raised in Los Angeles California. She wrote her first song at the tender age of 8. Her first song dubbed "Old Pal" was a tribute to her late Nana Barbara. She found solace in writing music and later began piano and singing lessons. She ultimately developed a style of songwriting that is transparent, daring, and full of hope, and reflective of her experiences, thoughts, and ambitions.

Turning pain into purpose and lessons into studio sessions. Her overarching ambition is to do what she loves and bring happiness to others through her music. Her dream is to one day write music with Harry Styles and Miley Cyrus and write songs for other amazing artists.

Mandi also has dreams to one day produce and engineer for herself and other artists in the scene. Mandi first rose to prominence after recording a cover of Camila Cabello's "Crying in the Club". The music video for the song garnered plaudits and is currently her most viewed video with over 84K views. She then followed up the success of the song with her debut EP Titled "Sixteen" which she released on her 16th Birthday.
