Demand for organic food is increasing significantly. One of the major developing countries such as India, Indian consumers have started paying more attention to their health, the nutrient content and quality of the food they eat. Due to which they have gradually begun shifting toward organic food, even though organic foods are priced higher than conventional food. The increase in awareness to be healthy among consumers is further giving a boost to the organic market as consumers are willing to pay for them if it is going to benefit their health and wellness.
