

Bleumi Adds Support for Polygon Network, Enabling Crypto Payments for B2B and B2C Business via Wyre

ANDOVER, MA, USA, November 1, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ -- Bleumi today announced support for the Polygon Network allowing B2B and B2C businesses to provide crypto payment options and payouts in Polygon's native cryptocurrency, MATIC, as well as MATIC USDC. Thanks to the integration between Bleumi and leading cryptocurrency infrastructure provider Wyre E-Commerce merchants and B2B businesses can accept MATIC or MATIC USDC from customers and receive the money in FIAT (USD, EUR, etc.,) or Crypto, directly into their registered bank account or wallet. Wyre is a registered MSB with the US Government and maintains a network of MTLs that allow partners to operate in the US in a fully compliant manner, with no need for licensing and compliance setup.

We are really excited about adding support to Polygon with Bleumi Pay, Bleumi Pay supports payment and payout with Polygon MATIC and MATIC USDC with our Wyre Integration.”

Thomas Arul, Ceo and Co-Founder Bleumi Inc.

Merchants who use Shopify, WooCommerce, and Magento can start accepting MATIC based Payments with Bleumi Plugin.

Bleumi has also integrated with Quick Books, enabling Quick Books users to create invoices and get paid in MATIC, and MATIC USDC with their existing invoice workflow.

In addition, Bleumi also offers its 'Bleumi Payment Link' web app that enables businesses to accept MATIC payments.

Bleumi also supports Metamask, Trust Wallet, Ledger, MyCrypto, Coinbase, and Torus wallets for MATIC Payments.

"We are really excited about adding support to Polygon with Bleumi Pay. Polygon offers a fast, scalable, and ultra-low-fee environment. Polygon MATIC and MATIC USDC offers businesses a fast, safe and secure alternative to traditional payment methods and paves the way for blockchain payments to disrupt the way consumers and businesses receive and spend funds, Bleumi's integration with Wyre is essential to ensure high-value transactions are compliant, especially for NFT marketplaces and B2B/B2C Business." said Thomas Arul, Ceo, and Co-Founder Bleumi Inc.

Hamzah Khan, Head of DeFi at Polygon said: "We're delighted that Bleumi has opted to tap the Polygon ecosystem to enable crypto payments and payouts for its clients. Adding MATIC and MATIC USDC as payment options unlocks a plethora of benefits for Bleumi's wide range of supported businesses, allowing them to pass on greater payment flexibility and optionality to their customers."

"Our partnership with Bleumi will enable the ability to bridge the gap between eCommerce merchants and B2B businesses, and the use of traditional and crypto payment rails," said Ioannis Giannaros, CEO of Wyre. "Having worked closely with Polygon, we are delighted that Wyre is positioned as the leading fiat-to-crypto provider in the vibrant Polygon ecosystem."
