Sales Hall, the on-campus residence hall located at St. John Bosco High School (SJB), will open its doors to students in January 2023 to begin the spring semester. The facility will be managed by SJB's longtime, trusted partner, Lartin Brothers Education (Lartin).

De Sales Hall, which is directly adjacent to SJB's Panish Family Stadium, will provide the opportunity for students from all around the state, country and world to live on campus at SJB. SJB currently has students from 110 US zip codes and 20 different countries represented in their student body.

“We believe that the dialogue that comes with students from around the world enriches all of us here at Bosco, and we welcome the learning and growth that international students bring to our campus. We're excited to be able to accommodate the needs of more students by partnering with Lartin Brothers to open the doors of De Sales Hall,” said Bryce Weiglin, Director of International Admissions at SJB.

Lartin is an education group that provides a full suite of student management services to students and schools alike. SJB and the Washington-based education group are partners in the mission to develop the whole student, allowing each student to realize their full potential.

“The SJB community is excited to rely on the expertise of Lartin's commitment to providing nurturing care for students and putting the students' needs first aligns with the Salesian mission of our school, which is to create an environment where students feel at home and can thrive academically, spiritually, and personally. We couldn't be more excited to offer this educational opportunity and help meet the needs of students from all over the world,” said Brian Wickstrom, President/CEO of SJB.

With the ability to house 50 students, De Sales Hall is fully equipped with an industrial-sized kitchen, indoor and outdoor dining spaces, laundry room, dedicated study rooms, game room, a small auditorium, an outdoor basketball court and more. Lartin will staff the residence hall with full-time personnel and will provide students with a full range of student support and accommodation services.

De Sales Hall is set to open in January 2023 to begin the spring semester. St. John Bosco High School is currently enrolling.
