SCHAUMBURG, IL, USA, November 1, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Pulse Technology

(<http://pulsetechnology.com>), a technology company serving the IT, Managed Print Services and other needs of businesses throughout the Midwest and beyond, has won an “Honorable Mention” in the category of “Best Professional MPS Services for 2022” from the national trade association, the Managed Print Services Association.

We're very pleased to have been selected for Honorable Mention in the MPSA competition. We thank the MPSA for its leadership and advocacy on behalf of MPS."

Chip Miceli, CEO, Pulse Technology

The award recognized Pulse Technology's contributions to the Managed Print Services based on the scope of their MPS offering, the infrastructure that supports the MPS program, the value provided to customers, the metrics to measure growth and efficiencies, and what makes the MPS solution stand apart from others.

Pulse Technology's award was announced over a webcast on November 1 highlighting the winners in MPSA Leadership. Categories of award included, also, Best MPS

Professional Services Provider, Best MPS Innovation, Best MPS Infrastructure Provider and Best MPS Industry Collaboration. Wes McDonald, president of the Managed Print Services Association, thanked the winners "for all you do for the Office Equipment and Managed Print channel."

Pulse Technology has also been part of a certification program that MPSA is conducting, providing MPSA Managed Print Certified accreditation to dealers nationwide to help adhere to the highest possible standards. Pulse Technology is one of the national dealers that have earned and achieved this certification.

“We’re very pleased to have been selected for Honorable Mention in the MPSA competition,” said Chip Miceli, CEO of Pulse Technology. He added, “We thank the MPSA for its leadership and advocacy on behalf of MPS.”
