lip cream is a cosmetic used to moisturize and protect lips. The cream is usually made up of a combination of oils, waxes, and emollients. It may also include ingredients such as colorants, flavorings, and sunscreens. You can apply lip cream directly to your lips with a lip brush or stick form. Lip creams can prevent chapping and dryness of the lips and provide protection against the sun's ultraviolet radiations. Lip creams can also temporarily plump the lips by increasing blood flow. Lip creams may also contain ingredients with anti-aging properties such as vitamin C or retinol.
