

Gospel Artist Jon Plair Gears Up For Single Release Concert With Host Comedian Barry Brewer

When music and comedy come together it packs a powerful and lasting punch.

DETROIT, MI, UNITED STATES, November 4, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Gospel artist Jon Plair teams up with comedian and actor, Barry Brewer for a dynamic single release concert for Plair's single, "It's Gonna Get Better."

Music is liberating. I find joy in creating a sound that is soothing for someone's spirit. "It's Gonna Get Better" is exactly as it says. No matter what you're going through, it's gonna get better."

Jon Plair

Jon Plair has been carving his way as one of the HOTTEST artists in the Gospel Music Industry! With the dynamic spirit of a true champion, Plair is on a mission to encourage others through his music and his high-energy performances. Plair says, "My new single will impact lives all over the world with the hope that better days are here and that you are a winner because God's got you. He has designed it where the sun shines again and victory is yours!"

With a little something for everyone, this star-studded evening is packed full of excitement. Fans can look forward to an evening of energy, celebration, laughter and an all-around great time as Comedian Barry Brewer (from BET Tyler Perry's Bruh) hosts this action-packed night.

The night is offering up a wide variety of options based on the kind of experience you are seeking. The tickets are categorized by Platinum, Gold, and Silver packages.
