The city is currently the sixth-largest municipality in greater Seattle and the ninth-largest in Washington state.

Beyond Ride

It's very tough to misinterpret the importance of non-emergency medical transportation (NEMT) in a thriving community. NEMT is an extensive medical transportation solution that supports a variety of use instances and modes of transportation for the deprived population categories.

There is a big expansion amongst seniors and disabled people in the U.S. and NEMT plays an indispensable role in accessing clinical appointments, healthcare services, pharmacies, labs, and more. There are numerous other facilities provided by NEMT.

Beyond Ride is a non-emergency medical transportation corporation presenting Wheelchair services, Ambulatory Services, Disability transportation services and wheelchair transportation throughout Washington State and Pennsylvania state.

Beyond ride has come a long way in the sector making a major breakthrough in healthcare with its fine tailored and customized solutions.

There are a number of difficulties faced by numerous people throughout the United States and one of them is lack of transportation facilities for people who have their medical appointments but cannot drive or are dependent on family or friends for help. The ambulance services are far more expensive and not all people can afford them.

Beyond Ride's non-emergency medical transportation services are safe, secure, comfortable and cheap. Beyond ride provides best non emergency transportation, wheelchair transportation, disability transportation and numerous other services while taking care of its customers.
