The Sofema team looks forward to the opportunity to support the Flight Safety Foundation and to develop a supporting role to promote the objectives of the Flight Safety Foundation.”

About the Flight Safety Foundation

The Flight Safety Foundation is an Independent Non-Profit Organisation.

Flight Safety Foundation was formed in 1947 to pursue the continuous improvement of global aviation safety. The Foundation meets this objective through research, auditing, education, advocacy, and communications. As an independent, impartial, and nonprofit international membership organization, it is in a unique position to identify global safety issues, set priorities, and serve as a catalyst to address the issues. The Foundation's effectiveness in bridging proprietary, cultural and political differences in the common cause of safety has earned worldwide respect. The common good of safer air travel continues to inspire individuals and organizations to rise above competitive interests towards shared objectives.

Today, membership includes more than 1,000 organisations and individuals in 150 countries. The Foundation is based in Alexandria, Virginia, U.S., and has a regional office in Melbourne, Australia. For more information, visit www.flightsafety.org
