Key Trends In The Independent Artists And Performing Art Companies Market

Performing arts companies are partnering with military and veterans organizations, urban equity programs, and businesses to address social issues. These partnerships allow them to achieve their mutual goals of building audiences, cutting costs, and addressing homelessness, hunger, and other social issues. Corporate partners include local hotels, parking facilities, and restaurants, all of which are providing financial support and gifts-in-kind in exchange for the additional name recognition and business the new performance hall with collaboration will bring them. By collaborating, each organization raises more money than it would have raised alone.
