

(Video) Iran's relentless uprising continues with night rallies across the country

Locals in the city of Karaj, west of Tehran, carried out the ceremony on the 40th day of Hadith Najafi's murder by the regime's oppressive security forces.

PARIS, FRANCE, November 4, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The ongoing nationwide uprising throughout Iran is now marking its 49th day on Thursday, following a busy night of protest gatherings, roadblocks, and other protesting measures by the Iranian people in major cities in Iran.

In an important development in Washington, more than 2,000 academics from universities across the United States have written to U.S. President Joe Biden urging him to do more to support the Iranian people engaged in anti-government protests across the country, emphasizing many of these protesters are coming out of Iranian universities and schools as young Iranians take to the streets and face off against the country's brutal security services.

“

Thursday, Nov. 3, marked the 49th day of the ongoing nationwide uprising throughout Iran. thousands of Iranians held memorials for several protesters killed by security forces in different cities.”

MEK

Thursday began with reports of demonstrations and strikes by students at the Islamic Azad University in the city of Marivan and the protesting students chanting, “College students would rather die than live in shame!”

The ongoing nationwide uprising throughout Iran is now marking its 49th day on Thursday, following a busy night of protest gatherings, roadblocks, and other protesting measures by the Iranian people in major cities in Karaj and Arak, in central Iran.

Activists in Kermanshah and Marivan are reporting that store owners and merchants in the city's Dowlat Abad district are on strike in solidarity with the nationwide uprising.

After nightfall people in several districts of the capital Tehran and other cities including Karaj, Tabriz, Mashhad, Qazvin, Fasa, Rasht, Bukan, Marivan, and more were in the streets continuing the nationwide uprising.

Many were seen chanting anti-regime slogans specifically targeting the mullahs' dictator, Ali Khamenei. The regime's oppressive security forces in various cities and areas of Tehran were seen opening fire on the locals' peaceful gatherings.

Locals in the city of Karaj, west of Tehran, are marking the 40th day of Hadith Najafi's murder by the regime's oppressive security forces.

They began chanting, "Death to the dictator!" and "This is the year Seyed Ali (Khamenei) is overthrown!" while clashing with the regime's security forces after being attacked by the oppressive forces.

Reports indicate protesters have torched a vehicle of the security forces and made their units flee the scene. These ceremonies are becoming scenes of anti-regime rallies across the country.

In the city of Arak, central Iran, locals gathered to mark the seventh day of the killing of Mehrshad Shahidi by the regime's security forces. The participants in this rally began chanting:

"So many years of crimes! Death to the mullahs' regime!" "Fear us as we're all together!"

US academics urge Biden to act in response to Iranian protest crackdown

Protests have shaken the regime since death of Mahsa Amini in police custody

More than 2,000 academics from hundreds of universities in the U.S. are urging President Joe Biden to act in response to a crackdown by the Iranian regime against protests at the country's universities, calling on Biden to halt any negotiations with the regime.

<https://www.foxnews.com/politics/us-academics-urge-biden-act-response-iranian-protest-crackdown>

In an important development in Washington, more than 2,000 academics from universities across the United States have written to U.S. President Joe Biden urging him to support the Iranian people & students engaged in anti-government protests across the country.

Locals in the city of Karaj, west of Tehran, are marking the 40th day of Hadith Najafi's murder by the regime's oppressive security forces. They began chanting, "Death to the dictator!" and "This is the year Ali (Khamenei) is overthrown!"

Similar gatherings were held in the cities of Fuladshahr, Qazvin, Rasht, Amol, and Chalus. In Fuladshahr, a large crowd of people gathered in memory of Mahsa Muguie on the 40th day of her murder by the regime's security forces.

Protesters drove back security forces who had attacked them. They also forced the regime's oppressive security forces who attacked their gathering to flee. Many people were hit when the attacking forces opened fire on the peaceful gathering.

In the city of Amol in northern Iran people gathered to mark the 40th day of the murder of 33-year-old Ghazaleh Chalabi. In the city of Rasht, also in northern Iran, locals held a similar rally marking the 40th day of the murder of Behnam Layeghpour.

Authorities closed a cemetery and prevented people from holding a gathering marking the 40th day of the murder of Amir Hossein Shams by the regime's oppressive security forces. Locals in Qasr-e Shirin in western Iran also gathered to mark the 40th day of Afshin Asham's murder by the regime's oppressive security forces. "Death to Khamenei!" they were chanting.

The parents of Iran's national hero, Navid Afkari, participated in a ceremony in memory of Javad Heydari, a protester killed by the regime's security forces.

Starting on Wednesday morning, students in numerous universities and high schools checked across the country relentlessly pursued their protest gatherings against the regime's escalating crackdown through their official security forces and plainclothes agents.

There were many reports indicating the regime had dispatched its Islamic Revolutionary Guards

In the city of Arak, central Iran, locals gathered to mark the seventh day of the killing of Mehrshad Shahidi by the regime's security forces. The participants in this rally began chanting: "So many years of crimes! Death to the mullahs' regime!"

Iranian opposition, the (NCRI) President-elect Maryam Rajavi praised the Iranian people in their continuing protests rallies against the mullahs' regime. She said, "Freedom and equality, only realized by overthrowing the clerical regime,"

Corps (IRGC) members in plainclothes to quell all anti-regime protests, only to see the Iranian people standing their ground and continuing their rallies.

People in the cities of Tehran, Tabriz, Arak, and others were protesting well into the night and targeting regime-associated buildings with Molotov cocktails.

Those chanting slogans were directly targeting the regime's senior ranks and calling for regime change in Iran by the people of Iran. All the while, strong criticism is being directed at both the IRGC and the paramilitary Basij Force.

"Death to the dictator!" and "Death to Khamenei!" referring to regime Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei, and "Death to the oppressor! Be it the Shah or [Khamenei]!" are being heard in more cities throughout Iran.

Iranian opposition—the National Council of Resistance of Iran \(NCRI\) President-elect—Maryam Rajavi praised the Iranian people in their continuing protests rallies against the mullahs' regime.

"On Day 49 of Iran's protests, students at Sistan & Baluchestan University chanted, 'Freedom, equality, Kurd, Baluch, & Azeri,' insisting on the desire for democracy and equality for all ethnic groups in Iran, only realized by overthrowing the clerical regime," she said.

"Freedom-loving people and youths marked the 40th day of martyrdom of Hannaneh Kia, the beloved daughter of the people of Nowshahr, despite shootings by repressive forces.

Crying out, 'Khamenei will be overthrown this year,' they called for justice for the slain children of Iran," the NCRI President-elect continued.

The protests in Iran began following the death of—Mahsa Amini. Mahsa (Zhina) Amini, a 22-year-old woman from the city of Saqqez in Kurdistan Province, western Iran, who traveled to Tehran with her family, was arrested on Tuesday, September 13, at the entry of Haqqani Highway by the regime's so-called "Guidance Patrol" and transferred to the "Moral Security" agency.

She was brutally beaten by the morality police and died of her wounds in a Tehran hospital on September 16. The event triggered protests that quickly spread across Iran and rekindled the people's desire to overthrow the regime.

Shahin Gobadi

NCRI

+33 6 61 65 32 31

email us here

This press release can be viewed online at: <https://www.einpresswire.com/article/599512328>

EIN Presswire's priority is source transparency. We do not allow opaque clients, and our editors try to be careful about weeding out false and misleading content. As a user, if you see something we have missed, please do bring it to our attention. Your help is welcome. EIN Presswire, Everyone's Internet News Presswire™, tries to define some of the boundaries that are reasonable in today's world. Please see our Editorial Guidelines for more information.

© 1995-2023 Newsmatics Inc. All Right Reserved.