

UMT Offers PMI Student Membership to All Students Who Enroll in Its Project Management Programs

ARLINGTON, VA, USA, November 7, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The University of Management and Technology (UMT) began in the Fall 2022 semester to pay the PMI student membership fee for UMT students who enroll in UMT's project management programs.

The Project Management Institute (PMI) is the world's premier leader in the theory and practice of project management. It is the 900-pound gorilla in the PM arena, with close to 700,000 members worldwide and 300 chapters. PMI student membership can benefit UMT students in many ways:

UMT Graduates

- It is a step toward becoming a PM insider and to get in touch with the real world of global project management practice.

PMI student membership is a great way for an aspiring PM professional to plug into the real world of PM practice by getting actively involved in PMI.”

Dr. J. Davidson Frame, UMT Academic Dean

- It provides students with access to hundreds of PM documents and tools, including a free download of the famous world standard, the PMBOK Guide, and access to a full range of guides on PM best practice.
- It provides access to some 1,400 PM webinars.
- By affiliating with their local PMI chapter, student members will encounter strong networking opportunities through face-to-face interaction with fellow project professionals at chapter meetings, seminars, and symposia.

- It offers ample opportunities to serve as a volunteer who helps run the local chapter, or who works on global PMI teams to support PMI in its efforts to promote project management.

UMT recognizes that in educating managers to advance their careers, it is as important to help them strengthen their professional outlook as it is to learn how to employ the managerial tools and techniques they study in the classroom. They need to actively engage themselves with the broad community of players in their field. UMT's coverage of PMI student membership fees opens the door to increasing their access to fellow PM professionals both in their local communities and throughout the world.

"PMI student membership is a great way for an aspiring PM professional to plug into the real world of PM practice, by getting actively involved in PMI," says UMT Academic Dean, Dr. J. Davidson Frame. "The networking opportunities PMI offers provide student members with access to the full range of people and institutional players that drive project management forward."
