

2022 Texas Book Festival EXCLUSIVE: Wand by Chuck Champlin

A dreamer and would-be "Imagineer" finds he's mysteriously received $20,000 and a challenge to make the world a better place... What should he do now!?

AUSTIN, TEXAS, UNITED STATES, November 4, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- In 1989, Chuck Champlin submitted his work for the Ted Turner Tomorrow Fellowship Award, which recognizes outstanding unpublished fiction that addresses global issues. As part of this year's Texas Book Festival, Authors Press will feature Wand as one of its literary works.

This book dwells on using the "wand" as a symbol of incredible power and change in communication. Chris Walkman, the protagonist of the story, had an uncommon problem. He's given $20,000 to and tasked to make the world a better place. Come along with Chris Walkman as he takes on the adventure of plotting for a better world.

Don't miss out on reading this appealing and amusing masterpiece. Grab your copies on Amazon, Barnes & Noble, and other online book retailers.

We have serious things to do!”

Chris Walkman
