

Prolific Chart-topper Sarantos Shoots for the Moon with Rock Hybrid Single "Comets"

The multi-genre Chicago-based singer-songwriter and musician will raise funds for the American Lung Association with his latest rock single.

CHICAGO, IL, USA, November 7, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- Chicago-based singer and songwriter Sarantos has released his latest alternative rock/experimental song "Comets." Known for the diverse influences in his music, this song is no different. The song combines many genres to introduce a new kind of hybrid-rock sound that is fresh and energetic, yet thought-provoking. Released on November 1st, "Comets" combines rock, rap, alternative and experimental sounds to further develop the signature Sarantos sound. Like its predecessors, proceeds from this single will be donated to charity. This go-around, it's The American Lung Association.

You won't hear anything else like this song anywhere else on planet earth!”

Sarantos

"You won't hear anything else like this song anywhere else on planet earth," Sarantos says. "Critics agree that is a good thing."
