

OMNICOMMANDER Honored With The 2022 HIRE Vets Gold Medallion Award

MIRAMAR BEACH, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES, November 9, 2022

/EINPresswire.com/ --

OMNICOMMANDER® was recognized as a recipient of the 2022 HIRE Vets Medallion Award for the company's efforts in employing our nation's veterans. The honor was announced today during a virtual award ceremony presented by the U.S. Department of Labor. This marks the third time the company has received the designation.

The HIRE Vets Medallion award is the only federal award recognizing exceptional achievement in veteran employment. OMNICOMMANDER met the criteria for the Gold Medallion Award by demonstrating patriotism and recognizing the contributions veterans bring to the workplace.

As a veteran-owned and operated business, this award is especially important to Eric Isham, Founder and CEO of OMNICOMMANDER. When Isham got the news about the prestigious Gold Medallion Award, he shared this about the honor, "This award recognizes not only our commitment to hiring veterans but also retaining veterans as members of our team. I gravitate toward candidates with a military background as they are almost always team-focused and have the grit to be successful at OMNICOMMANDER."

Recipients of the 2022 HIRE Vets Medallion Award meet rigorous employment and veteran integration assistance criteria, including veteran hiring and retention percentages; availability of veteran-specific resources; leadership programming for veterans; dedicated human resource efforts; pay compensation and tuition assistance programs for veterans.
