would in the office. Whether they are adjusting to new teleworking environments during the COVID-19 pandemic, or had previously adopted technologies in response to an already existing remote workforce trend, the products and services from winners of the 2022 Teleworking Solutions Excellence Award will enable businesses to effectively support their mobile and remote workforces.

Arman Eghbali, 101VOICE CEO and Founder, said, “We are deeply honored by the recognition that another of our Unified Communications solutions provides exceptional solution support to the teleservices industry. 101VOICE continually strives to offer our customers excellent UC solutions and support customized to suit their unique needs. It is an immense privilege to receive this award and be a name our customers can trust. It is an immense honor that we do not take for granted.”

1NUMBER.io offers a simple one-number reachability solution via 101VOICE's award-winning cloud communication system. The solution mainly focuses on government, educational, and healthcare organizations and provides an effective cloud communication solution to stay in touch with their team, employees, parents, etc., without hassle. The communication gateway is HIPAA-compliant, provides administrator control, three years of call and SMS logs, and a white-glove service.

"The TMCnet Teleworking Solutions Excellence Award recognizes the best and the most innovative products that this industry has to offer. 101VOICE has proven their commitment to quality and the further development of Teleworking Solutions industry through 1NUMBER.io," stated Rich Tehrani, CEO, TMC. "Congratulations to the entire team at 101VOICE for earning this great honor. I look forward to seeing more innovative solutions from them as they continue to contribute to the future of Teleworking," Tehrani added.

The 2022 TMCnet Teleworking Solutions Excellence Award will be highlighted on TMCnet and INTERNET TELEPHONY magazine's online news portal.
