

Global Collagen Casings Market Share Worth US$2.9 Billion by 2027 - New Research Report by IndustryARC

The spiraling popularity of sausages and broadening meat consumption are Anticipated to Boost Product Demand in Global Collagen Casings Market

HYDERABAD, TELANGANA, INDIA,
November 10, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- IndustryARC, in its latest report, predicts that Global Collagen Casings Market size is estimated to reach $2.9 billion by 2027, growing at a CAGR of 6.5% during the forecast period 2022-2027. Collagen casings are fabricated from connective tissues or skins of animals. These sausage skins are frequently taken into account while preparing several processed and functional foods such as beef sticks, hot dogs, frankfurters, and others. Owing to the fact that they are made from naturally occurring protein they are deemed innocuous to use and eat. As compared to natural casings, collagen casings decrease waste and save a lot of money. As a result, they are a comparatively appropriate selection for manufacturers and consumers around the globe. Besides high flexibility and uniformity which makes the overall management and packaging process more relaxed, their overall appearance and taste that they confer to the sausages have drawn the eyes of millions of consumers toward themselves. In addition to that, Collagen casings are highly versatile and suitable for making varieties of sausages and have a longer shelf life of up to 1-2 years, provided if stored in an ideal storage location (cool and dry environment). Last but not least, collagen casings can be used straight away after opening the package and do not require prior soaking. The global collagen casings market outlook is fairly positive owing to proliferating usage of ground & processed meat and dietary supplements. Nevertheless, various advantages over natural and fibrous casings including flexibility and mechanical strength, augmenting meat consumption, confrontable disposable incomes due to economic prosperity, strengthening the chain of modern distribution channels are the factors set to drive the growth of the Global Collagen Casings Market for the period 2022-2027. The report offers a complete analysis of the market, its major segments, growth factors, trends, drivers and challengers, key players and more.
