Among all the venues that FNP caters to, there is one such venue located at the prime location of National Highway – 8, at the border of Gurugram and New Delhi, known as Raga. Raga was formerly known as Vilasa and the venue went through a massive makeover as the vertical decided to refurbish Vilasa and rename it as Raga. Raga has been a top choice for many people among the venues situated on NH-8. The biggest winning factor is its location and the facilities it entails.
