Water pipeline leak detection systems are utilized to determine the location of the leak in water transmission pipelines. Around 30% to 50% of water is lost through the aging pipelines, which also contributes toward loss of revenue. Water pipeline leak detection systems are available for both underground and over ground water pipelines to precisely locate and check the severity of pipeline leak.

Covid-19 impact:

- Construction and manufacturing activities of water Pipeline Leak Detection Systems halted due to the implementation of the global lockdown.
- Moreover, supply chain disruptions, shortage of labor force, and unavailability of raw materials created several challenges in carrying out manufacturing in full capacity.
- Several construction activities were delayed in order to maintain the social distancing norms.

- The demand from end use industries reduced significantly due to halt in day-to-day operations in 2020. However, the demand would grow steadily during post-lockdown as daily operations get back on track.
- The ban on import-export activities led to supply chain disruption and supply-demand gap. As the restrictions are lifted off, the supply chain will be restored.
