This strategic joining of brands is not your typical run-of-the-mill corporate announcement; there is a significant aspect to this partnership. ORCA Golf, is the country's only women-owned golf equipment company. Its principals, Deborah Bennett and Erica Bennett, founded the company in 2019 and are devoted to creating high-quality, lightweight golf bags that allow golfers to convey a personalized message or brand rather than carrying the name of a golf equipment company. The boutique enterprise has been growing steadily, with sales having doubled this year alone after ORCA Golf showcased its products at the 2022 PGA Exhibition and Trade Show.
