

Silver State Film Festival 2022 Welcomes Filmmakers to Las Vegas this Fall

Silver State Film Festival Screens over 150 independent films in Las Vegas at Century Orleans 18 and XD.

LAS VEGAS, NV, USA, November 11, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- With the crisp fall weather upon us, filmmakers and film aficionados traveled to Las Vegas to enjoy the much anticipated "Silver State Film Festival" which ran from October 27th -30th at the "Century Orleans 18 and XD Movie Theater at The Orleans Hotel & Casino". This year's festival started off with a lively kick-off party at "Fridays" in The Orleans on Wednesday, October 26th, and continued with the festival commencing on Thursday, October 27th at the theater. "We had a wonderful turnout with over 150 independent films from around the world ,our turnout continues to grow every year and the festival is gaining more recognition on the international film festival circuit", said Jon Gursha, Festival Director. "Having the festival at this grand theater for indie films adds to the excitement of the movie-going experience for everyone", added Jon Gursha. The festival was followed by an awards show at The Orleans with over 95 film and screenplay awards.

The "Silver State Film Festival" now in its fifth year, proudly brings together many of the world's most talented independent filmmakers to screen their works at high-quality theaters. A complete program of the films screened at the festival is available on the official festival website, silverstatefilmfestival.com.
