/EINPresswire.com/ -- FlekSA is the only all-in-one solution for restaurants that helps them make more money. FlekSA helps restaurants create their own unique ordering and reservation system, as well as their own branded website and app. With FlekSA, restaurants can take control of their online presence and increase their profits. FlekSA is the only platform that provides everything a restaurant needs to succeed online. FlekSA makes it easy for restaurants to take orders, manage reservations, and accept payments. FlekSA's features are designed to help restaurants increase their sales and streamline their operations. FlekSA is the perfect solution for any restaurant that wants to take its business to the next level.

Web and App Ordering

FlekSA was created by restaurateurs for restaurateurs in order to consolidate ordering and guest engagement tools. The company's learnings from 1M processed orders were used to redevelop a product suite that answers operators' current problems across restaurant tech. The new product unveiling took place after a year-long process, during which the company gathered feedback and input from restaurateurs. With the new FlekSA suite, operators will have more control over their ordering and guest engagement processes, making it easier to run their restaurants smoothly and efficiently. flekSA provides a much needed solution for busy restaurateurs who want to streamline their operations. By consolidating various restaurant tech tools into one easy-to-use platform, flekSA gives restaurateurs the power to run their businesses the way they want to. With fleksa, there are no more headaches or hassles when it comes to ordering and guest engagement. Instead, fleksa provides a simple, effective solution that will help operators streamline their restaurant operations and improve their bottom line.

In today's restaurant industry, it's more important than ever to have a strong online presence. That's why Fleksa is committed to providing the most comprehensive platform possible for restaurant businesses to grow their revenue, automate guest expansion, and elevate their digital guest experience from end-to-end. By rebuilding the platform from scratch, Fleksa has been able to create a unique solution that bridges any and all gaps between tech stacks and the restaurant industry. With Fleksa, restaurants can focus on what they do best - providing an amazing dining experience for their guests - while we take care of the rest. Whether it's online ordering, reservations, or loyalty programs, Fleksa has you covered.
