NaturAlley magazine, currently published quarterly, is inspired by the idea that people can live their life to the fullest with a permanent sense of well-being by the conscience awakening that there is a hidden subconscious space keeping them from becoming aware of their surroundings.

NaturAlley features the latest regional and national information on holistic, alternative, and traditional health, providing a unique human-spirit integration that includes a close-up and personal look from celebrities, authors, notables, and Super Agers in pursuit of a healthy lifestyle to help revitalize the motivated health-conscious community.

“The paradigm of aging is a big part of the mission of the magazine to expose challenging topics to enhance the reader’s lifestyle and the way we age,” says Jacquie Novoa, NaturAlley publisher. “Furthermore, we strive to keep our readers informed and exposed to various issues pertaining to keeping and maintaining a healthy and balanced lifestyle.”

“I have long wanted to contribute my Q&A interviews to a national consumer audience and NaturAlley is providing such an opportunity,” said Baker. “I will be focusing on people who have and do follow a healthy lifestyle. My initial interview will be with Hollywood actor Michael Learned, best known for her role as Olivia Walton in the long-running television show, The Waltons, and currently appearing in the Netflix series featuring serial killer Jeffery Dahmer.

Learned is in her 80's and still going strong."
