Writers In Treatment and The Guest House, Ocala Honor Danny Trejo for Helping Others with His Story of Sobriety

LOS ANGELES, CA, UNITED STATES, November 14, 2022 /

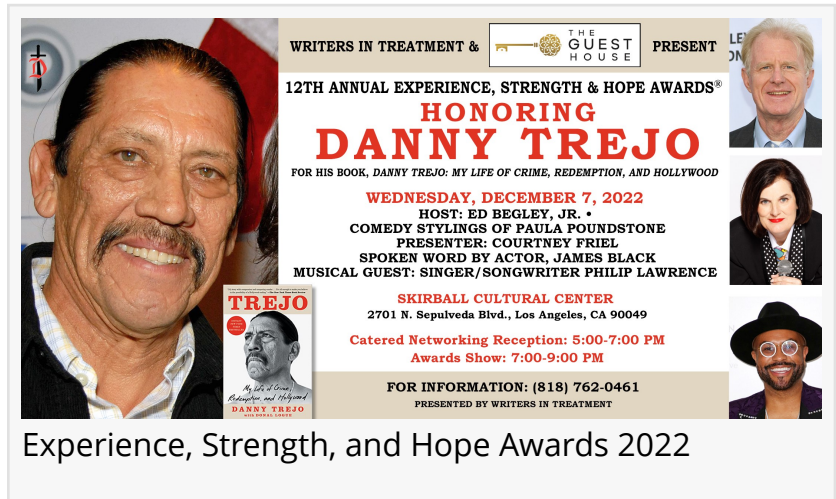

EINPresswire.com/ -- Beloved Los Angeles actor, restaurateur and recovery advocate, Danny Trejo, will be honored by Writers In Treatment, an organization that supports those in recovery through the arts. Mr. Trejo will be presented with the Experience Strength and Hope Award. The awards show, in its 12th year, is scheduled for Wednesday, December 7 at the Skirball Cultural Center in Los Angeles. Catered reception will begin at 5 p.m. with a 7 p.m. start time for the awards show.

The Experience, Strength, and Hope Award is given every year to an individual who has written a memoir about their career and brutally honest journey from addiction to clean and sober living. KTLA-TV anchor and reporter, and last year's recipient, Courtney Friel, will present this year's award to Danny Trejo. His book, "Trejo: My Life of Crime, Redemption, and Hollywood," takes readers through his days of crime, time in prison, his struggle with addiction and then, finally, his recovery and success in Hollywood.

Returning as host is six-time Emmy Award-nominee, Ed Begley, Jr. The show will open with a spoken word performance from "The Family Business" star James Black. Entertainment will be provided by comedian Paula Poundstone as headliner and eight-time Grammy Award-winner Philip Lawrence as the musical guest. Tony Denison, star of TNT's "Major Crimes," will present the annual REEL Recovery Film Festival's "Audience Favorite Award" for "Fruckus" to filmmaker, illustrator, and animator Evan York.

Previous recipients have been invited to attend, including: Academy Award-winner Lou Gossett, Jr.; astronaut Buzz Aldrin; star of "Fuller House," Jodie Sweetin; Duran Duran's John Taylor; Emmy Award-winner Joe Pantoliano; actress Mackenzie Phillips; TV and radio broadcaster Pat O'Brien
