CANCUN, QUINTANA ROO, MEXICO, November 15, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- Dolphin Discovery, one of the brands of The Dolphin Company family, park operator with a global presence, received the Silver Travy award for Best Water Park in Mexico by the Travy Awards during its annual event held in Florida, United States.

The Travy Awards are considered the "Oscar Awards of travel", for qualifying the highest standards of excellence in the international tourism industry. The winners are chosen by vote of the most important travel agents in the United States.

"We feel honored and proud with this award. This drives us to continue to improve and raise our standards even higher. This is the result of the dedication of all our collaborators to provide visitors with unforgettable experiences and, above all, generate emotions that inspire the care of Marine Mammals and the environment", said Claudia Sosa, Chief Commercial of The Dolphin Company.

This is the second consecutive year that Dolphin Discovery has received a Silver Travy as the Best Water Park in Mexico thanks to the excellence of its activities. This award joins The Dolphin Company's list of national and international accreditations that recognize its high quality standards in terms of animal welfare, service, facilities, among many other aspects.
