

These (Super Cute) High-Quality Baby Dishes Take the Stress Out of Mealtime

No More Flying Saucers - The Award-Winning Baby Gear Engineers at Abiie, LLC Debut Fun, Food-Safe Octopod[®] Dishware That Stays Put (and Cleans Up Fast!)

AUSTIN, TEXAS, USA, November 14, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- November is National Stress Awareness month, and few jobs are more stressful than that of a parent. That's why the award-winning engineers at Abiie, LLC (AB-BEE) are making mealtime a breeze with the all-new [Octopod[®] baby dishware](#) line. Featuring an innovative suction-cup base for a no-slip grip and the highest quality easy-clean, eco-friendly materials, this is family mealtime at its best.

The Octopod[®] combines modern toxin-free materials with guaranteed super-suction technology to ensure that food stays put and clean up is stress-free.”

Abiie, LLC Founder Kenneth Chuah

“Most parents know the headache of preparing a healthy, wholesome meal for their little one, only to watch it go sailing onto the floor moments afterward,” explains company founder, inventor, and lead design engineer Kenneth Chuah. “The Octopod[®] combines modern toxin-free materials with guaranteed super-suction technology to ensure that food stays put and clean up is stress-free.”

Abiie, LLC first earned national recognition on The Ellen Show with the introduction of their groundbreaking Beyond Junior Y Chair, featuring adjustable elements that grow with baby from infancy to adulthood. Since 2007, the brand has quickly become a trusted favorite of eco-conscious parents across the country with its minimalist-inspired designs, environmentally friendly approach, and a commitment to superior safety.

The Octopod[®] baby dishware collection is no exception to the brand's high performance standards. Choose from a selection of ergonomic designs, including a fun, parent-approved silicone “frog” in various colors ($14.90) or a 100% non-toxic bamboo bowl, round plate, or triangle plate with spoon ($20.99 each). Each dish helps to control mealtime chaos with a suction-guaranteed design that:

Features 100% food-safe materials - BPA-free, phthalate-free, PVC-free, lead-free, and conforms to all US and European safety standards for children

Simplifies prep and cleanup - dishwasher, oven, and microwave safe

Encourages new foods - portioned compartments keep foods separated

Easily fits any high-chair or table for easy everyday use
