Highlights from the Report

On 2 June 2022, Epson robotics launched a new generation of its flagship SCARA robotics product line: the GX4 and GX8 robots. This new product line draws on 40 years of experience to provide some of the industry's fastest pick and place speeds. The GX4/ GX8's speed makes it perfect for medical devices, electronics, and consumer electronics.

The Up to 5.00 kg segment is expected to account for the largest revenue share over the forecast period. This is owing to the fact that these robots are mostly employed for material handling, inspection and testing, and dispensing. SCARA robots are one of the most convenient ways to automate some of a production line's most monotonous, dull, and dangerous jobs.

The electrical and electronics segment is expected to lead in terms of revenue share in the global market over the forecast period owing to the increasing demand for devices such as smartphones, high-end computers, and televisions. Across the globe, there are an estimated 6.648 billion smartphone users, indicating that 83.72% of the world's population owns a smartphone.
