Giving back is a continuous mission of SNAX-Sational Brands. We are honored to work with The Ryan Seacrest Foundation and kick off this Holiday Season with the The Popcorn Challenge initiative.”

Adam Cohen, Chief Marketing Officer, SNAX-Sational Brands Group

Cookie Pop and Candy Pop by SNAX-Sational Brands Group is excited to celebrate their annual ‘SnackGiving’ initiative for 2022 with their first ever ‘The Popcorn Challenge’ to help raise brand awareness in support of official charity partner, the Ryan Seacrest Foundation, and their work with Children’s Hospitals nationwide. The Popcorn challenge, featuring Cookie Pop and Candy Pop, officially kicks off in November ahead of Giving Tuesday, the annual day of Giving, and continues all holiday season.

Today, November 15th, 2022, The Popcorn Challenge officially went live across social media channels debuting a TikTok video by music artist and TV/Film personality Lance Bass, (linked here: LINK to Lance Bass Social Kick Off), to challenge his followers to participate for this incredible initiative with Cookie Pop and Candy Pop to benefit the Ryan Seacrest Foundation Children’s Hospital Seacrest Studios Network.

The 2022 Popcorn Challenge Kicks off on November 15th, 2022

Ahead of #GivingTuesday, the annual global generosity movement that unleashes the power of people and organizations to transform their communities and the world, SNAX-Sational Brands is thrilled to launch its annual #SnackGiving campaign to raise funds for the Ryan Seacrest Foundation (RSF), this year in the form of the 'The Popcorn Challenge.' Focused across social platforms such as TikTok and Instagram, The Popcorn Challenge officially launches today, November 15th, and is aiming to engage users and consumers for an interactive giving initiative. On #GivingTuesday, November 29th, Ryan Seacrest will release his very own video in support of The Popcorn Challenge, as Cookie Pop and Candy Pop continue to challenge followers across social media to engage in the promotion through December 15th, 2022 to raise funds and awareness for the Foundation.

A portion of the proceeds of all retail sales and e-comm sales of all flavors will support the Ryan Seacrest Foundation during the holiday season, benefiting their Seacrest Studios within children's hospitals across the United States. National retail partner It'Sugar, which features the entire Cookie Pop and Candy Pop flavor portfolio, will also be donating proceeds from the Special Edition Holiday Flavors to the Foundation through December 15th.

Aimed to inspire today's youth through entertainment and education focused initiatives, The Ryan Seacrest Foundation has built 11 state-of-the-art broadcast media centers, named Seacrest Studios, in children's hospitals across the U.S., with three more slated to open within the next calendar year.

The Challenge: From November 15th to December 15th, specifically, the brand is challenging participants to try and catch as much popcorn in their mouth as possible in 10 seconds. To win, the contestant must post a video attempting the challenge for a chance to win a free case of Candy Pop and Cookie Pop popcorn. The grand winner will receive $1,000 and be chosen at random, and 20 other recipients will win a year of popcorn delivery of their flavor choice from the extensive portfolio of popular brands, plus a Who Has It Holiday VIP Gift Box. The brand will be picking these 20 lucky winners attempting the tasty task with bonus points to those challenging their friends to take on the feat, for the case delivery! Even unsuccessful attempts will qualify! SNAX-Sational has also partnered with Who Has It? Unboxing company, as their official The Popcorn Challenge partner. Bobby Kennedy III will once again be producing the video content for this holiday initiative.

In 2019, Candy Pop and Cookie Pop unveiled its exciting relationship with the Ryan Seacrest Foundation (RSF), a non-profit organization dedicated to inspiring today's youth through entertainment and education focused initiatives. RSF's primary initiative is to build Seacrest Studios, within pediatric hospitals for patients to explore the creative realms of radio, television and new media. Their newest additions will open in 2023 at Le Bonheur Children's Hospital (Memphis, TN) and Cohen Children's Medical Center (Queens, NY).

SNAX-Sational Brands' premiere power duo Cookie Pop and Candy Pop, continues to be the innovative popcorn snacking leader combining everyone's favorite things -ready-to-eat popcorn featuring America's cookie and candy favorites, yielding the perfect, must-have snack creation. The better-for-you-snack is made 100% in the U.S. with non-GMO corn, is low in sodium and only 150 calories per serving. The popular, low-calorie, cookie or candy-coated line was named a "Top 20 Snack" by BuzzFeed and continues to garner attention amongst consumers, media and celebrities, from Cardi B. to Lance Bass to Kevin Hart to Mario Lopez, Foodgod, Giuliana Rancic, Kourtney Kardashian, Ashley Greene and Lucy Hale, among many more.

"We are excited to team up with SNAX-Sational Brands for another year," shares Meredith Seacrest, Executive Director & COO for RSF. "Their support is helping us build multiple new Seacrest Studios in pediatric hospitals, while continuing to bring entertaining and uplifting experiences to patients in our existing 11 studios."

"We are so thrilled to launch the Popcorn Challenge in support of the incredible efforts of the Ryan Seacrest Foundation. Giving back is a continuous mission of SNAX-Sational Brands. We are honored to work with such an incredible nonprofit. We are so excited for this holiday season, kicking off with the Popcorn Challenge initiative." - Adam Cohen, Chief Marketing Officer, SNAX-Sational Brands Group

Bobby Kennedy III on the partnership:

"The Ryan Seacrest Foundation's focus on helping children is such a noble mission. I was extremely excited to team up with Cookie Pop and Candy Pop with RSF again this year on The Popcorn Challenge ahead of Giving Tuesday. Being a father of two young children, the work of Ryan and the RSF team, and their impact on the Children's Hospital patients, really hit home and what they do is incredible. Looking forward to our viral campaign bringing them the attention they deserve and creating excitement for the children and their families."

Bobby Kennedy III got his start in filmmaking producing and directing environmental documentaries, and then transitioned with a feature comedy shot in Italy, followed by his most recent film, Fear & Loathing in Aspen, based on the story of Sheriff Hunter S. Thompson and the 1970 election.
