bordering counties. Their mission is to provide quality healthcare to those who cannot otherwise afford it. They provide primary care services, simple dental extractions, specialty visits, pharmaceuticals, and outside referrals. All of this is possible due to the network of volunteers they rely on to run their clinics and help them manage their administrative needs. The C.A.R.E. Clinic’s Golf Charity Tournament is one of three of their staple fundraisers each year.

Transworld Business Advisors of Eastern NC agent, Ashley Kelsey, partnered with The C.A.R.E. Clinic in Fayetteville, NC to organize their annual Golf Charity Tournament. Several members of the Transworld Eastern NC team participated in the tournament to support the cause.

“Many people do not realize how much manpower goes into running a golf tournament. Ashley stepped to the plate and worked tirelessly to recruit over 30 volunteers. She also helped place them in their rolls, coordinated with them on their time availability, and made sure the ship kept sailing smoothly during shift changes,” states C.A.R.E. Clinic Director of Development and Marketing, Tara Martin, “We could not have pulled off this event without her help. I deeply admire her strong drive to accomplish her goals and I am so grateful for her dedication to our cause.”

Ashley has a strong passion for helping her community and encourages others to investigate The C.A.R.E. Clinic and learn more about its important mission in serving Eastern NC.
