

AT&T to Keynote at Immerse Global Summit in Miami Beach, Florida 2022

Immerse Global Summit Miami will take place at the Fontainebleau (Dec 5-7,2022) and welcomes AT&T as the Presenting Sponsor alongside other global tech leaders.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, UNITED STATES,
November 17, 2022 /

EINPresswire.com/ -- The VR/AR Association (VRARA) announced today that AT&T will deliver the keynote as the Presenting Sponsor at Immerse Global Summit taking place in Miami Beach, Florida December 5-7, 2022.

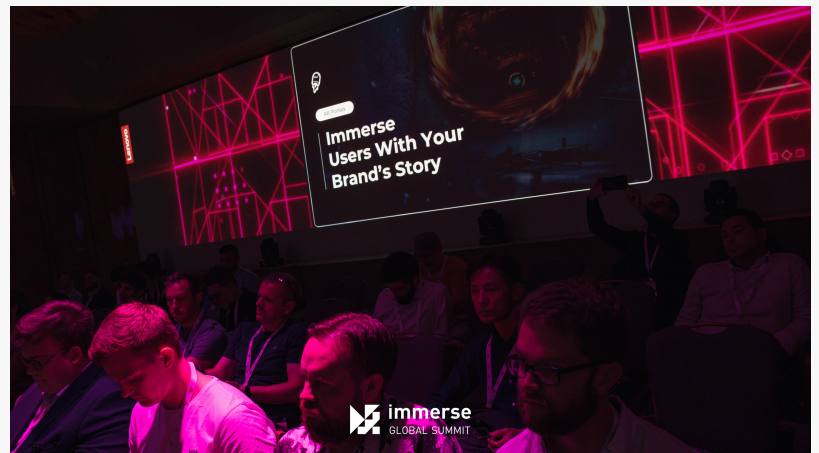

Immersive technologies are proving to be an increasingly important part of nearly every company's digital strategy, from training the workforce in virtual reality to augmented reality entertainment, gaming, and advertising. As a result, next-gen connected devices and the bandwidth they require are putting more demands on mobile networks than ever before.

"The merging of our physical and digital worlds through immersive experiences is only possible with connectivity solutions like AT&T 5G and Fiber. As the immersive technology ecosystem evolves, AT&T will lead the way, transforming how the world works, lives, and plays, connecting businesses and our customers to greater possibilities." —Andrew Bennett, AVP, Mass Market 5G Products at AT&T and keynote speaker.

Immerse Global Summit is expected to draw 1000+ attendees (both in-person and online/virtual)

Immerse Global Summit networking session among global tech leaders

Miami is one of the high-growth technology cities in the US. Demand for technology jobs is rising, and Miami-Dade, Broward, and Palm Beach counties were among the top markets for the growth of tech job postings during the first six months of 2022, according to the Dice Tech Job Report, an analysis that looks at hiring trends by location, employers, role and skills.

"We are thrilled to welcome AT&T to the keynote stage at Immerse Global Summit in Miami. The importance of high-speed and reliable data transfer connectivity has never been more important than what we're seeing in the new digital ecosystem of industries in the metaverse, blockchain, web3, virtual and augmented reality, digital fashion, digital humans, enterprise, and more."
—Nathan Pettyjohn, Founder & President of the VR/AR Association, host of the Immerse Global Summit.

"Business leaders across every vertical should attend this event and learn how immersive technologies are transforming their businesses. Many of the world's most respected companies and thought leaders will be at Immerse Global Summit, in a setting curated to deliver inspiration, and allow attendees to network with game-changing business connections." —Kris Kolo, Global Executive Director of the VR/AR Association, who hosts Immerse Global Summit.

The Immerse Global Summit will feature dynamic keynotes, industry tracks, demos, exhibits, networking, and amazing VIP events. It will showcase the best that the industry has to offer.
