Taffeite

The artist has been majorly inspired by emo, rock, and pop punk bands from the 2000s and 2010s. Perhaps this is because such bands would most emphatically speak of emotionally charged and realistic issues within everyone's life, giving many a thread of hope to hold on to. The core motivator for Taffeite's music is the need to formulate passionate interpretations and deep moments with music as a way of releasing the in-built tensions within oneself.

Taffeite's music is meant to comfort, and help others feel understood. This is achieved by deep, intricate storytelling and emotional lyrics. The aspiring musician strives to keep exploring music and evolving with time. Their inspiration comes from many places ranging from pop musicians to theatrical pieces and visual art. Taffeite's newest album was written by themselves and produced by Medusa, a small production company in Guatemala.

'Freak Show' is an album that truly sings of the forlorn state of one's life by showcasing with beautiful artistic diversity the "freak show" that has ensued at least once during everyone's life journey. The dark intensity hidden within this music provides the listeners with an enduring adrenaline pump that distracts them from the daily turbulence of their life.

Multitudes of influencing genres each coalesce to form this exceptionally distinct musical masterpiece.
