continuously published books. With the invention of the internet, the company founder Wayne Bell chose to focus on making "books for the world".

"With newly increased manufacturing capabilities at our company, the staff and employees look forward to researching new capabilities and the Contract opportunities. Many listings of the federal business opportunities are greater than $25,000. This includes synopses of proposed contract actions, solicitations, and associated information that can be accessed electronically.

Having our organization registered in SAM.gov allows us to compete and be awarded federal contracts. We look forward to the continued opportunities provided by the US Govt. as this helps maintain jobs and employment security, stated Publisher Wayne Bell.
