/EINPresswire.com/ -- To celebrate Women Entrepreneurship Day, Exeleon Magazine released its November special issue of the Most Empowering Women Leaders of the Year. The issue features stories of various established and trailblazing women entrepreneurs who are making a statement in their respective industries and market.

Exeleon is a leading business magazine for leaders and entrepreneurs to showcase their story to a wide-ranging audience, comprising C-Level Executives, Business Professionals, and Management Personalities.

Featuring as the Cover of this issue is Rebecca Perez, Founder of GOSS Club and Editor-in-Chief of GOSS Magazine. Rebecca is the author of three best-sellers, a certified private pilot, skydiver, scuba diver, real estate investor, and a community-driven entrepreneur.

Through her various business ventures, Rebecca aims to empower and inspire women to #BeGOSSY.”

Daryl Yeung

Talking about GOSS Club, Rebecca mentions “We have an open monthly membership club that brings together experts across various industries through masterclasses, live courses and networking events to digital courses on emotional intelligence, entrepreneurship and money mindset all around the world.”

Rebecca leads by example, standing with both courage and fear and taking the right action—be it launching a print magazine, when everyone said “print was dead” or investing in real estate when people were scared and selling their assets.

Daryl Yeung, the Editor-in-Chief of Exeleon Magazine, mentions “Through her various business ventures, Rebecca aims to empower and inspire women to #BeGOSSY. Her genuine curiosity for knowledge and empathy towards others, makes her stand out from the crowd. It is indeed fitting to have her as the face of our Empowering Women issue.”

This issue also includes stories of other established women leaders, including Danielle Joworski, Mary Harcourt, Misa Chien, Sharon Brand, Ursula Eyesin, and more.
