In a fast-paced society, everything can be hectic and suffocating. Having a lot on one's plate can be stressful and tiresome. In times of distress, seek tranquility and guidance through the words of God.

Flora Bolding's The Fall of Man is a worthwhile book to read if you wish to find personal and spiritual growth. Bolding aims to be an instrument for helping her readers understand the intricacies of life. Moreover, she wishes to help them rise from their fall and be of help as they begin to seek God. The vast majority of the scripture quotations in the book are taken from Dickson's New Analytical Study Bible (King James Version) and Master Study Bible: New American Standard.

Flora's prayer is that the reader will be enlightened to start the journey. To help the reader get up from the fall and no longer be short of the glory of God.”
