Safe at Home: A Memoir will be one of the books that will participate in the upcoming Guadalajara International Book Fair this November 26–December 4, 2022.

“

Both emotionally wrenching & smile-inducing, Joanne's book made me laugh & cry ... This is a raw & surprisingly honest story of a life with more downs than ups, yet radiates hope & courage.”

Amazon Customer Review

Raised in an entrenched Jewish family in Pittsburgh, Joanne Azen Bloom grew up to become the ideal daughter a family could ever dream of. At the tender age of nineteen, she married the handsome boy next door, who turned out to be a promiscuous man. Oblivious to her husband's true disposition, Joanne spent 23 years in an unhappy marriage. Thereafter, her journey of healing, self-discovery, and finding true love starts.

Safe at Home: A Memoir recounts the coming-of-age journey of the late Joanne Azen Bloom. This memoir took ten years to write, but the book perfectly elucidates her journey through sadness and finding bliss.
