

Scott Cooper Florida Grants Carnegie Award to Ian Carstairs, a Tulane University Altman Scholar '26

The Scott Cooper Florida Scholarship is unique in the sense that it requires students to write essays that are thought-provoking and controversial.

MIAMI, FLORIDA, USA, November 22, 2022 /EINPresswire.com/ -- The Scott Cooper Florida Scholarship is pleased to announce that Ian Carstairs is the latest Carnegie Award winner. In addition, a new scholarship opportunity has also been announced (details below).

Ian Carstairs is an Altman Scholar at Tulane University. He intends to major in Political Economy and Legal Studies in Business. Ian graduated with honors, completed his high school's advanced business management track, was a Junior Achievement Competition of San Diego Finalist, and was a teaching assistant for AP Psychology and weightlifting. Ian was also active in club swimming and playing the guitar in the school rock band. In addition, Ian was Chief Financial Officer of Hand in Hand, a youth-run jewelry company that raises money to benefit cancer survivors.

"I am grateful and honored to have been selected for the Scott Cooper Miami Florida Scholarship Award. As a child of two veterans, it was always important for me to go to college," said Ian Carstairs, "Being able to further my education at a university has always been a huge dream of mine, and this scholarship helps with advancing my education. Writing this scholarship helped me gain a wider perspective of the world and made me thankful for my parents' service. I would like to thank the Altman Program at Tulane University for allowing me the opportunity to gain a greater global perspective to apply to my life and my academic studies. I am so grateful to have made my parents proud, and I am thankful, once again, for the Scott Cooper Florida Project."

The scholarship application required each student to submit an essay on the following topics:

- (1) Describe a topic, idea, or concept you find so engaging that it makes you lose all track of time. Why does it captivate you? What or who do you turn to when you want to learn more?
- (2) Is the American Dream still alive?
- (3) "Life is never fair, and perhaps it is a good thing for most of us that it is not." Oscar Wilde said these words while he was one of the most popular playwrights in London in the early 1890s. What did he mean by this? Do you agree with him?
