In a day and age where stamps are more accessible online and anyone can be a stamp seller, education and expertise are more important than ever. In a push to help create a more informed generation of philatelists, the Spellman Museum and NobleSpirit are partnering in an event that is the first of many such events to come.

William T. Crowe, an expert on United States stamps and covers, will be on-site at the Spellman Museum to examine submissions and render non-binding opinions before opening up each item for discussion to the audience over the course of four hours.

The event is free to the public. Attendees are encouraged to bring a stamp they wish to be examined by the expert, members of the Museum may bring up to three stamps.

The flyer is a dark blue rectangle with white and red text. At the top left is the Spellman Museum logo (red square with white text). At the top right is the NobleSpirit logo (white 'N' on a blue background with 'NOBLE' above and 'SPIRIT' below). The center text reads: 'William T. Crowe', 'ON-SITE EXAMINATION & DISCUSSION OF US STAMPS & COVERS', 'Saturday, December 3rd, 2022, 10AM – 2PM', 'at the Spellman Museum'. Below this is a paragraph about the event, and at the bottom is contact information: 'For information on how to become a member of the museum, contact: info@spellmanmuseum.org'. The phrase 'meet the expert' is written in white at the bottom of the flyer.
