This event is made possible by generous sponsors the Los Angeles Rams, Dr. Dre, Elevance Health, and Marymount High School. Volunteer support is being provided by Elevance Health, City First Bank, U.S. Bank, Los Angeles Rams, APCH youth members, APCH Board members, and individual volunteers.

WHEN:

Wednesday, November 23, 2022

7:30 AM - Confirmed media is welcome on campus

8:00 AM until completion - turkeys and meal supplies distributed to families

WHERE:

A Place Called Home | 2830 S. Central Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90011

WHY:

The annual APCH Thanksgiving turkey and grocery distribution is an event that hundreds of households rely on to provide a Thanksgiving meal for their families. Those living in zip code 90011 were hit particularly hard by the COVID-19 pandemic and are still recovering. Now, more than ever, the community served by APCH needs the relief provided by this event and other weekly grocery distribution programs. Since APCH's founding one year after the Los Angeles Unrest in 1992, the organization has directly served more than 20,000 South Central youth and families through programs in the arts, civic engagement, education and wellbeing; and thousands more community members via its community and distribution events providing household essentials to families living in poverty.
