“As I think back to where our lives changed (based on Webster’s definition), I can see that life changes occurred long before we wanted to believe something was happening and that our lives were in for a transformation of great magnitude.”

— Kay E. Thomson, Finding JOY In the Midst of Grief: Continuing in God’s Loving Grip Through Loss of a Loved One

Kay married her husband, Dale, at the age of 19, and they spent their 44 years of marriage full of love and honed through the guidance of the Lord. Thomson’s life became full of challenges of every kind. This book narrates the journey of Thomson’s battle through the tunnel of grief.
