Purple mattresses stand out because of their GelFlex Grid construction. Thanks to this, they provide remarkable support and pressure relief. The Essential Collection uses a combination of this unique layer and comfort foams. Meanwhile, the Premium Collection is a set of hybrid mattresses that features wrapped coils for better ease of movement. These come in different sizes: twin, twin XL, full, queen, king, California king and split king.

Purple also uses its proprietary GelFlex Grid for its pillows, but for those who prefer something more traditional, it has down pillows as well. Moreover, it has folding and adjustable bed frames, as well as a variety of bedding and sheets.
