Judy revealed that the family hadn't told Lexington Tree Experts about the gifts earlier.

"This is a plan that has been there for the longest time," said Judy. "The family wanted to gift Lexington Tree Experts as a surprise. Therefore, no one told the team about it. The husband just made a call pretending to request for a tree service. When they arrived, that is when the family told them what was going on."

After insisting for too long, Judy revealed the gifts given to Lexington Tree Experts.

"Lexington Tree Experts company is the newest owner of 100 acres of land," said Judy. "Also, they now have two speed bikes that will help them quickly get to the landscape in case emergency services are needed. Those are just small gifts compared to how they have been helping the family in matters about trees." Judy shared about one experience where Lexington Tree Experts helped the family the most.

"10 years ago," said Judy, "the family almost lost all trees. This was a result of using bad tree care companies to 'improve the trees'. The trees started developing some strange signs, and it got even worse after asking for help from the same companies. The trees appeared almost dead. The family decided to seek assistance from a better company. That is when the family discovered Lexington Tree Experts through a neighbor who notably had been using the company for his trees. The family reached out to the company, and they responded and came the same day. After a quick inspection, the professionals assured the family that they would save the trees. They treated the trees and left. What surprised the family the most, is their cheap price to the point the family doubted that the treatment would work. 3 days later, the trees had started to improve. After 2 weeks, if someone told you that the trees were once near death, you wouldn't have believed."

Judy also lauded Lexington Tree Experts for keeping time and for good communication skills.

"So far, there has never been a case where the family placed a tree care request today and the team showed up tomorrow," said Judy. "Lexington Tree Experts is the best in timekeeping. It is very evident as even today, the team took only 20 minutes to arrive after the call. Also, the company's whole team has very good communication skills. These, together with their professionalism at work, make the experience of working with them even better."

Judy advised homeowners in Lexington and the entire neighborhood to trust Lexington Tree Experts with their trees and see the results.

"10 years are more than enough to tell whether a tree care company is good or not," said Judy. "Also, no homeowner can stick to a company for all that long if it is bad. The family's message to homeowners in Lexington and the entire neighborhood is to place their bookings with Lexington Tree Experts. That way, they will understand better why Lexington Tree Experts has a very high number of returning customers."
