company*

the automotive catalyst market is expected to grow from $15.00 billion in 2021 to $15.79 billion in 2022 at a compound annual growth rate (CAGR) of 5.3%. The Russia-Ukraine war disrupted the chances of global economic recovery from the COVID-19 pandemic, at least in the short term. The war between these two countries has led to economic sanctions on multiple countries, a surge in commodity prices, and supply chain disruptions, affecting many markets across the globe. The automotive catalyst market is expected to grow to $19.52 billion in 2026 at a CAGR of 5.4%.

Government initiatives on emissions are expected to propel the growth of the automotive catalyst market going forward.

Automotive Catalyst Market Trends

Technological advancements are a key trend gaining popularity in the automotive catalyst market. Major companies operating in the automotive catalyst sector are focused on developing new technological solutions to strengthen their position.

Automotive Catalyst Market Overview

The automotive catalyst market consists of the sales of automotive catalyst products by entities (manufacturers, sole traders, and partnerships) that are used to change the harmful compounds from an engine's emissions into safe gases. Automotive catalysts refer to a chamber located on the underside of a vehicle that splits harmful gas molecules before they get released into the air. Reduction catalysts and oxidation catalysts are the main types of catalysts featured in cars.
