Vacuum Cleaner Market Trends

Technological advancement is the key trend gaining popularity in the vacuum cleaner market. Major companies operating in the vacuum cleaner global market is focused on developing technologically advanced products to strengthen their market position. For instance, in March 2022, Creative Newtech Ltd., an India-based company operating in the designing and developing of cleaning equipment, launched Dustor, a next-gen robotic vacuum cleaner with light detection and ranging (LIDAR) technology. The Dustor is a next-generation robotic vacuum cleaner that is capable of tracing the smallest particles of dust where human eyes cannot see them, cleaning surroundings with the intervention of humans, and crossing obstacles while cleaning.

Vacuum Cleaner Market Overview

The vacuum cleaner global market consists of sales of vacuum cleaner products by entities (organizations, sole traders, and partnerships) that are used to clean floors and other surfaces by using vacuum suction that removes dust and dirt from floors. The vacuum cleaner is an electronic device that suckers dirt from surfaces and is powered by electricity. Cleaning is done using a vacuum cleaner, known as vacuuming, that removes debris and fibers, soil particles, inmates, and foul odors to maintain fibers and floors.
